The Journey

You have begun one of the most provocative paths to authentic personal power and enlightenment that exists. All Journeys have a beginning (the Foundation), middle (the Expanding Heart), and an end (Mastery). Your journey is dramatically accelerated with your intention to continually dissolve what I like to call "the Matrix", those non-supportive patterns inherited from your ancestors and the non-supportive culturally ingrained beliefs.

You can continue to expand your personal power and enlightenment by embracing the support of three things: your clearing is exelerated when it is consistently practiced over time; your heart expands when you take an active part in experiencing your journey; and although your journey is unique to you, your inner growth is integrated when you walk the path with others. Your journey consists of live seminars where you learn techniques to heal yourself and others. This is supported with home study courses and activations.

Live Seminars

People traveling alone on the path toward spiritual enlightenment can only go as far as their personal level of perception. Working under the guidance of experienced master teachers has a dramatic effect on your ability to shift beyond your current level of perception. You will receive hands on training, guidance and support in an atmosphere of like-minded people. The live seminars are designed to teach you new techniques that expand your healing abilities and catapult you into the next level of your journey.

Home Study Courses

The home study courses are designed to continually improve and expand your skills in the techniques. As you work through the processes you discover a spiritual awakening and a deeper connection to your higher self, resulting in quantum level changes in consciousness. You learn how to direct your thoughts to bring forth your life desires.

Activations

Activations are the raising of your vibrational fields. When you vibrate at a higher level you are able to attract into your world what you want. You were created in perfection. You have a perfect blueprint for health, wealth and relationships. Any disturbances in your world are a defect of this perfect blueprint. Low vibrations attract what you do not want. Your perfect blueprint is kept in the superconscious energy field of Source, Universal Knowledge, or God self. Our activations take the information of your perfect blueprint and bring it down from the superconscious into the subconscious. Once the energy has entered you subconscious mind you have access to it. To bring the energy into your conscious world is now only a matter of removing blocks from Matrix patterning and connecting to the perfect you. Our courses teach you how to do this.

DNA of Healing: The Journey Begins

The Beginning: Foundation

Self-mastery begins with self-awareness. Our training challenges you to learn everything there is to know about yourself and your beliefs. Learn how your beliefs have been handed down generation after generation and are still affecting your world today. We teach you how to remove these limiting beliefs and make positive changes in your life. Use daily to discover and release any core beliefs that are creating a disturbance in your life. Respond to life in a more balanced manner. Become aligned with your soul's intent.

What is my path of mysticism? How do I live in accordance with natural law? How can I follow my true path written in the ancient wisdom of light language? Is it my destiny to unlock the secrets to the ancient teachings of astrology, tarot, the Kabala, numerology and sacred geometry? And how do I connect, direct, and interact with Divine Knowing? When you ask these questions it is time to take action. You are ready for the ancient teaching of the great Knowing. Welcome to the Grand Masters.
